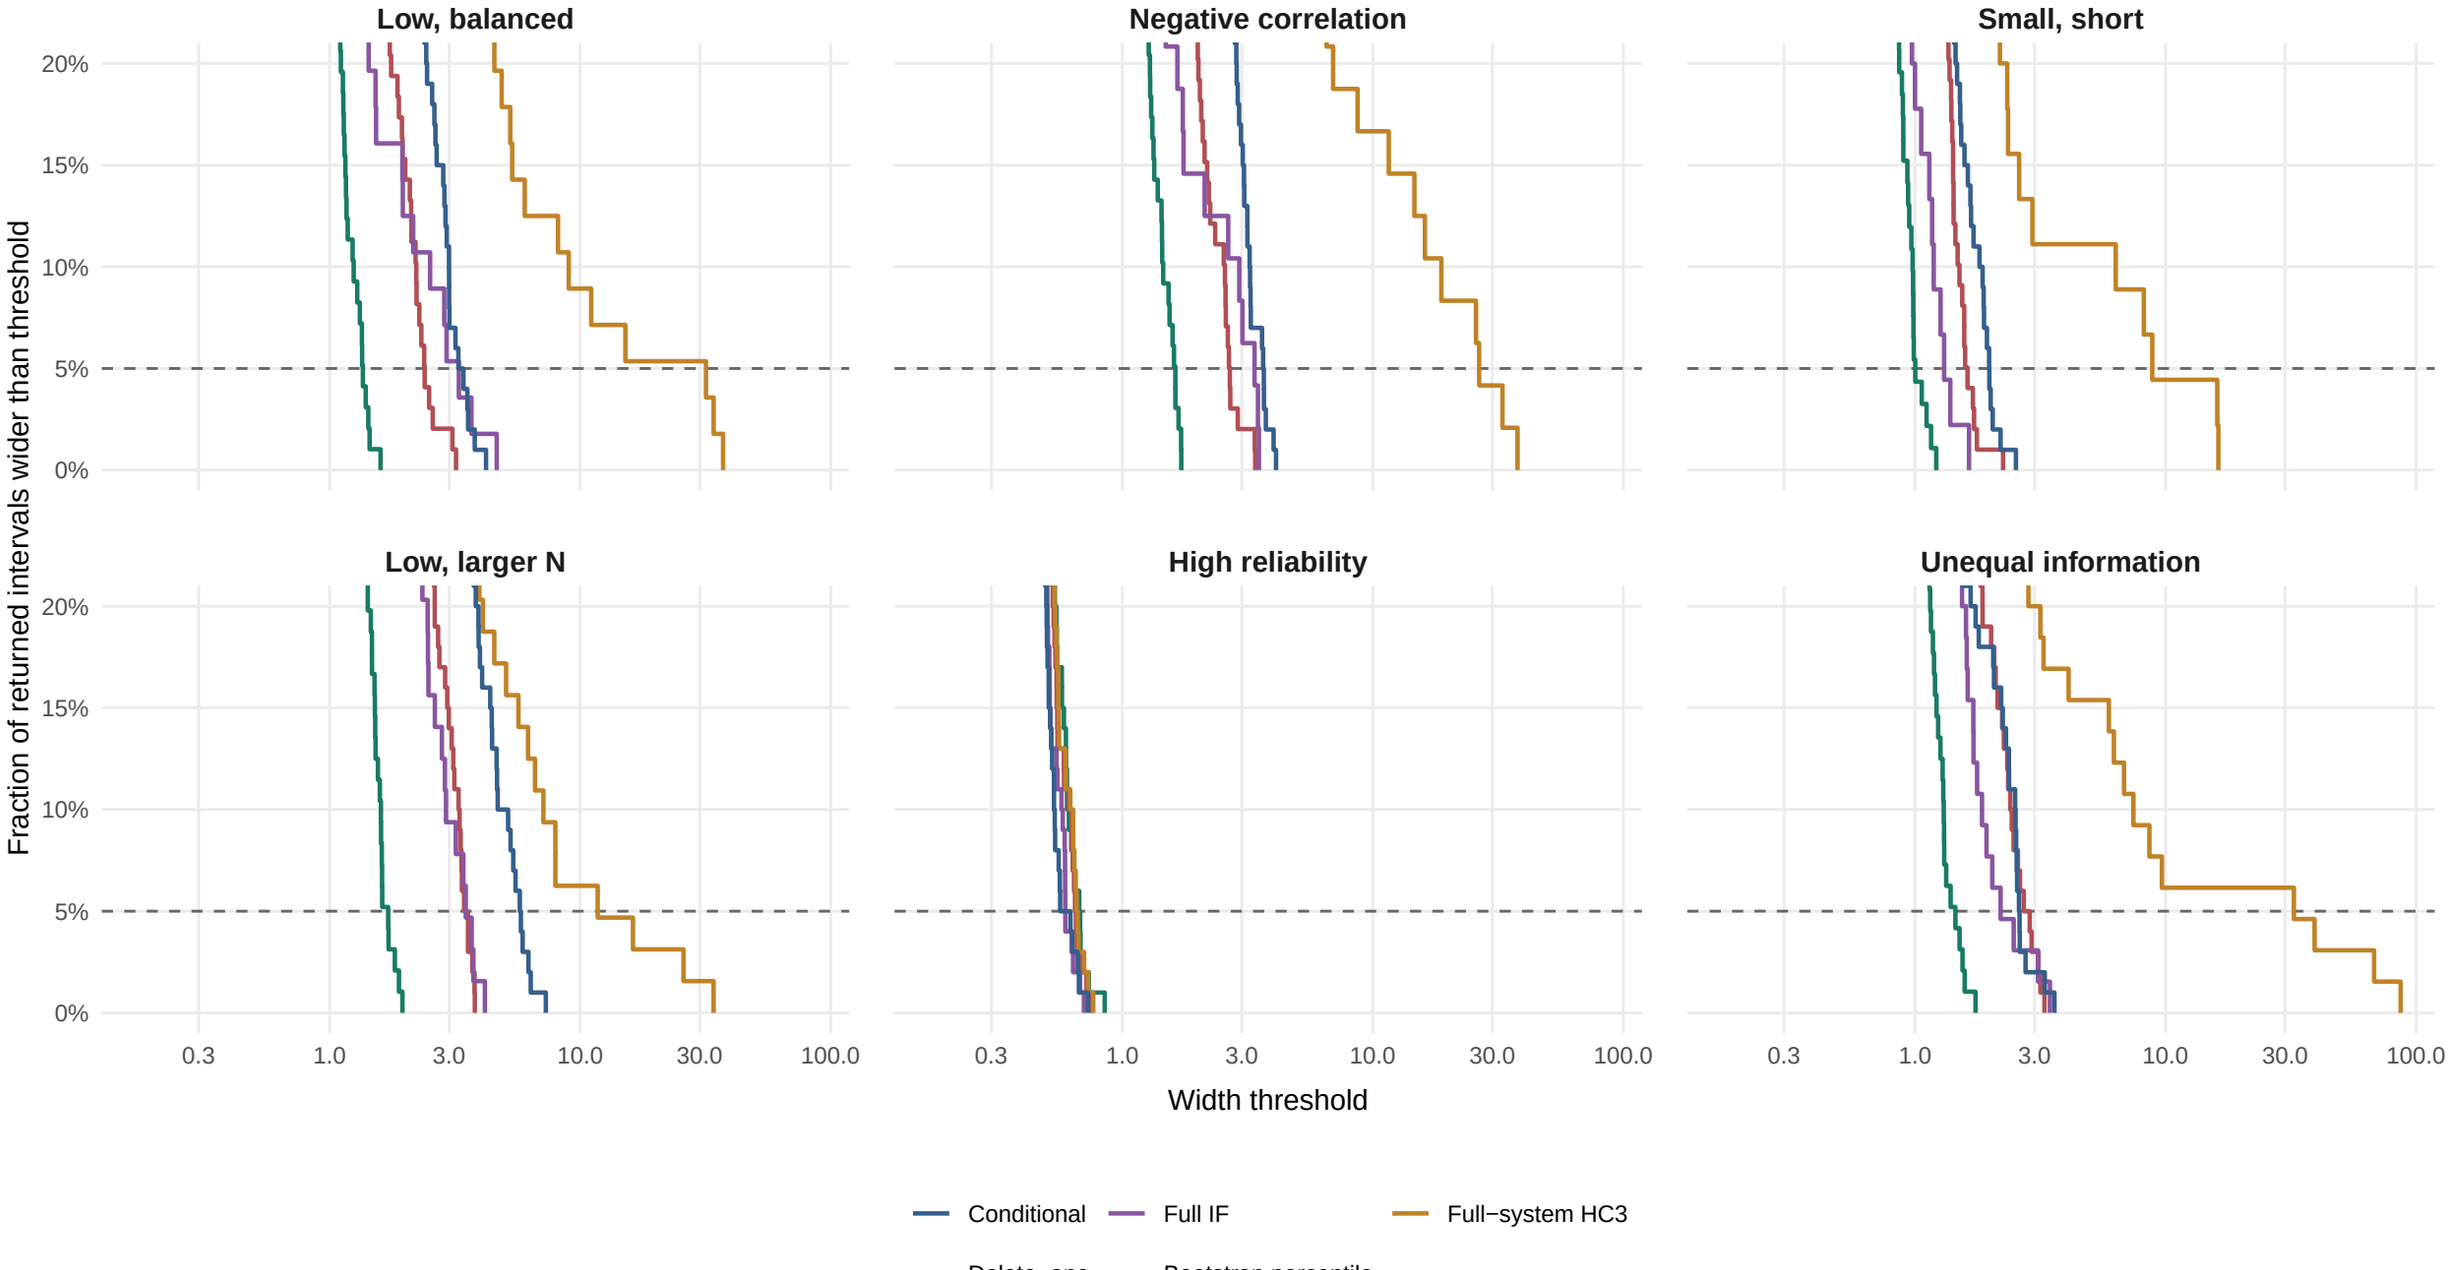
How often are the returned intervals exceptionally wide?

Truth = 0.40; upper 20% of the width distribution; logarithmic width axis



Steps use every returned interval and reach zero at each method's observed maximum. Dashed line: 5% exceedance.
Only the upper−width tail is displayed vertically; all observed width thresholds, including the largest, are retained.