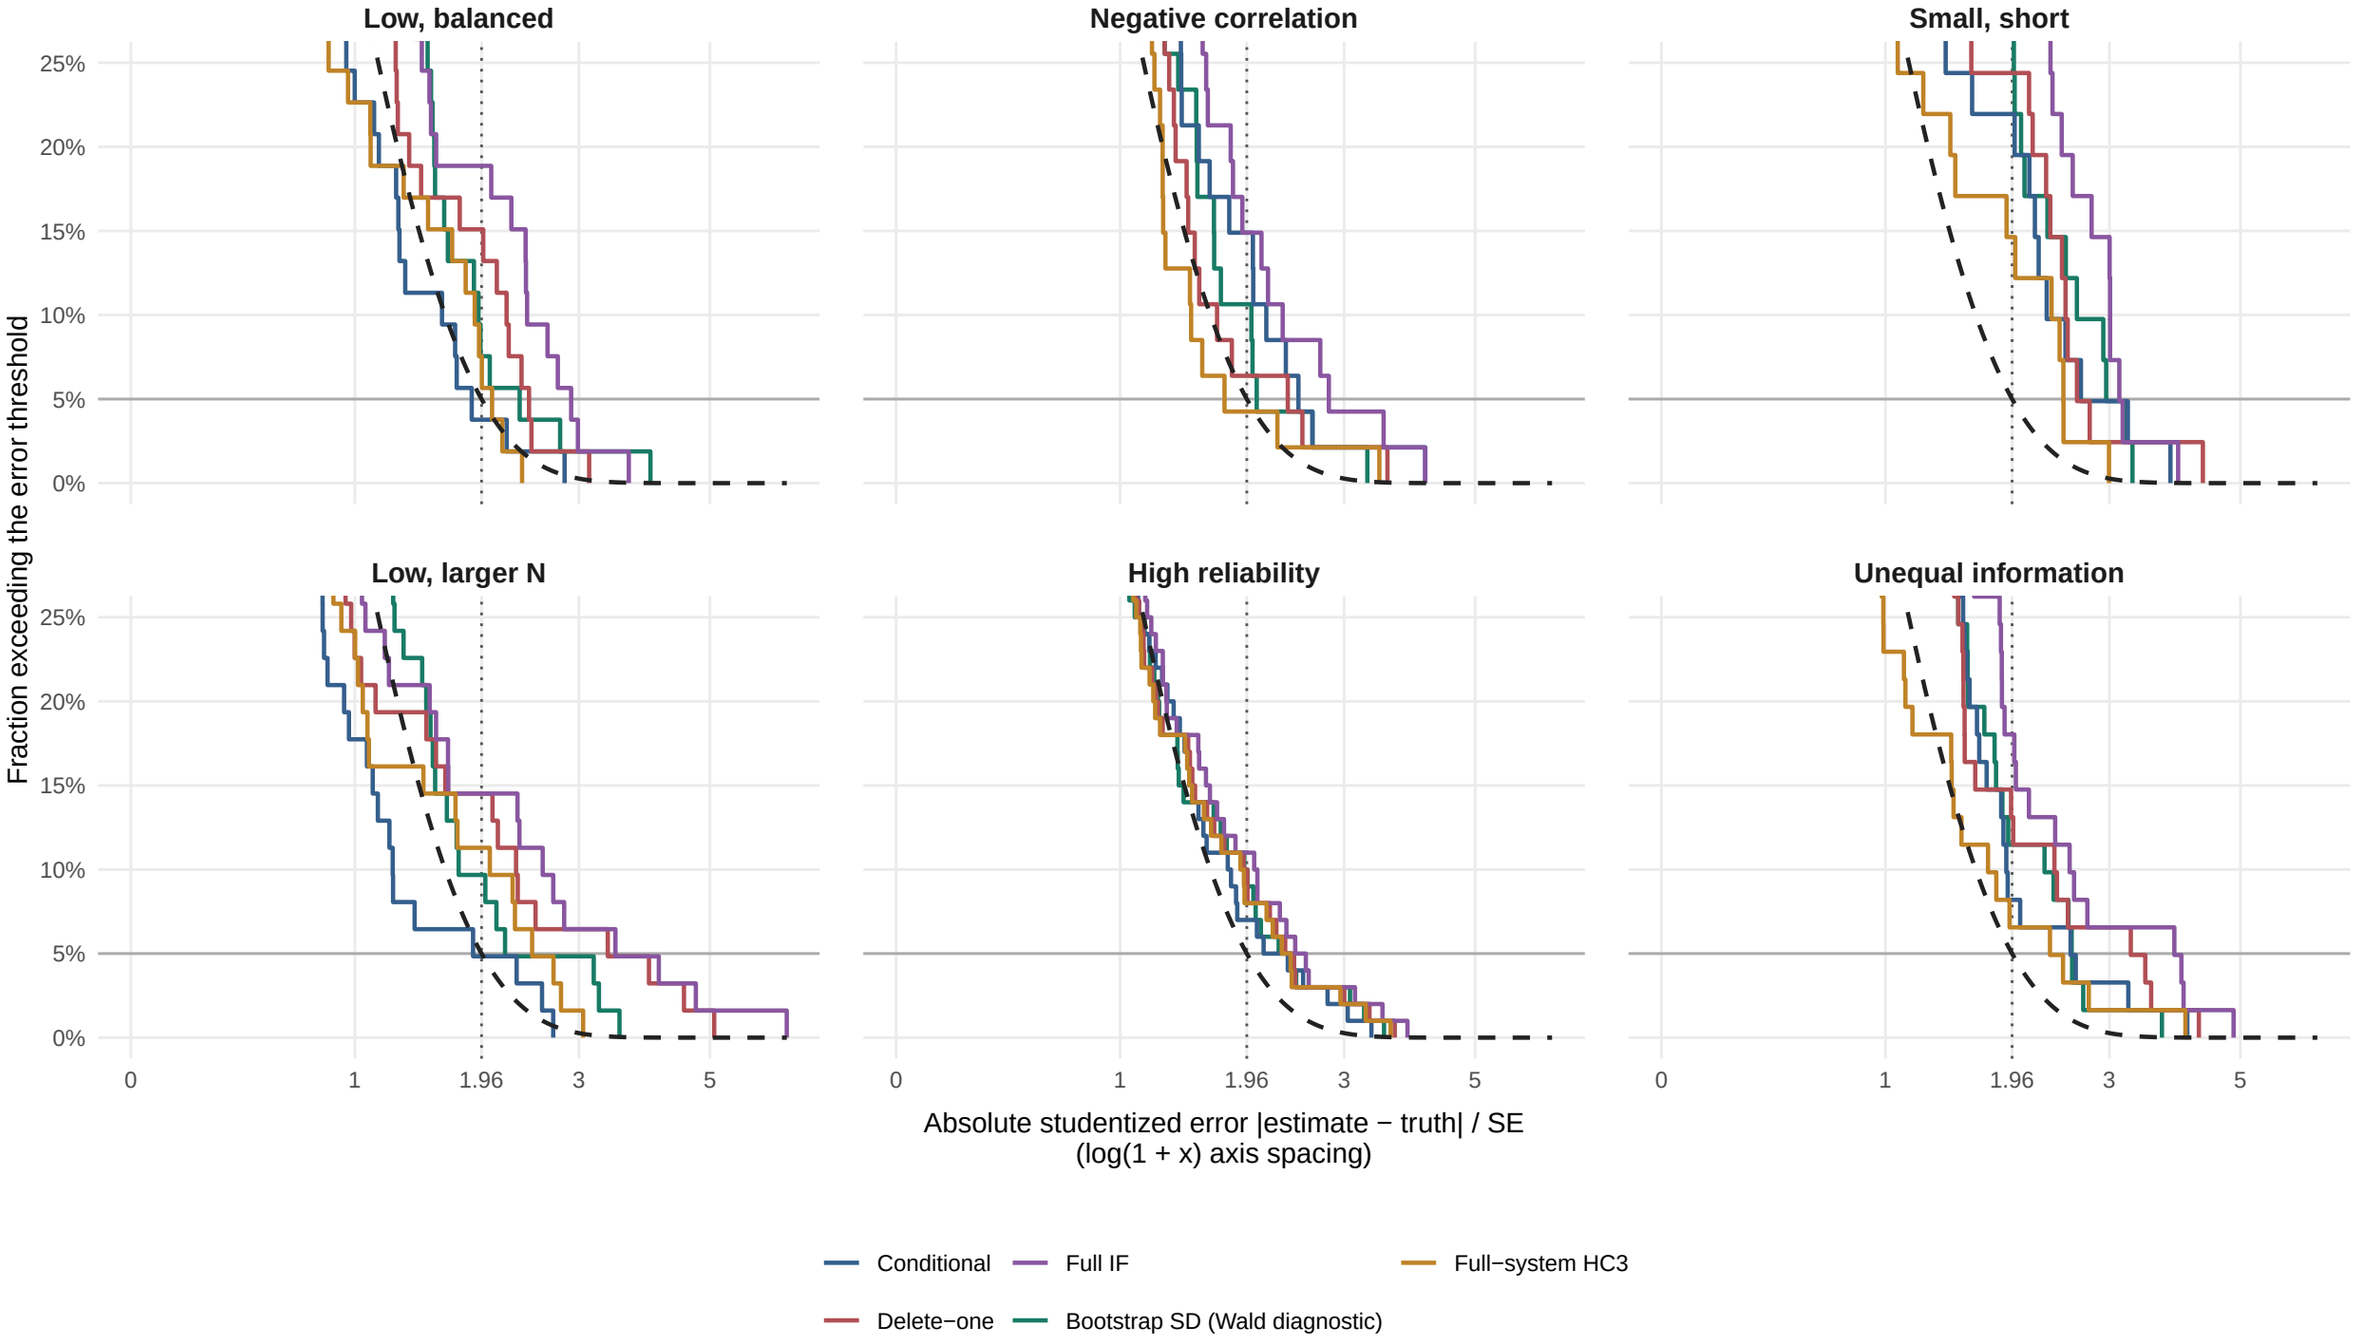
Tail calibration of symmetric Wald intervals

Truth = 0.40; identical five−method eligibility cohort; upper 25% of absolute studentized errors



Black dashed curve: standard−normal reference. Vertical line: 1.96; horizontal line: nominal 5% noncoverage.
Bootstrap SD is a Wald diagnostic, not the percentile interval. All observed studentized−error thresholds are retained.